Who we are:

In an increasingly growing and competitive market, Metro supermarkets stand out as Egypt's largest supermarket chain providing its customers with the highest standards of quality regarding its products and services.

Brief history:

As a Mansour Group company, Metro supermarket was introduced in Egypt in 1998. The first branch was opened in Khalifa Al Ma'moun, Heliopolis. Since its operation in the Egyptian market, the chain has expanded now to 40 branches covering Cairo, Giza, Alexandria, Mansoura, Ismailia, , Hurghada ,Port Said ,6th of October and Helwan; and more stores are to be opened soon to meet the growing needs of our diversified customers.

How we operate:

To be able to efficiently serve the community with today's lifestyle and fulfill consumer needs, Metro has to facilitate the shopping experience for its customers and gather all their needs in one place rather than the hectic visits to several small specialized shops. In addition, Metro's different services guarantee the satisfaction of the wide base of customers. Most of the stores (except a few branches) are open 24-hours.

We, at Metro Markets , are distinctive by the vast diversity of products and brands we present to our customers to satisfy all tastes. It honors us to deliver quality and value to our customers. As our slogan states, we provide "premium quality at affordable prices."

LuLu Hypermarket, the retail division of the multidimensional and multinational LuLu Group International has always been known as a trend setter of the retail industry in the region. Today, LuLu symbolizes quality retailing with 127 stores and is immensely popular with the discerning shoppers across the Gulf region.

With its pleasant and novel variation from the usual supermarkets, LuLu offers an ultra-modern shopping ambience by integrating all conceivable needs of the consumers under one roof. LuLu Hypermarkets have extensively laid out counters, sprawling parking spaces, play areas for children, food court, money exchange and bank counters besides a panoply of international and regional brands aptly justifying its tagline, 'LuLu, where the world comes to shop'.

LuLu Hypermarkets not only dot the cities of the UAE but have become the most preferred shopping destinations in Oman, Qatar, Kuwait, Bahrain, Egypt, Saudi Arabia and India.

Carrefour Egypt started fully functioning at the end of 2002 and the other stores opened thereafter, and since that time Carrefour is the most popular retailer in Egypt and it's characterized by:

- All products under the same roof, including specialty departments like fish, bakery, delicatessen, fresh meat, clothing, hardware, and even electronics.
- A huge selling area.
- Over 55,000 different products.
- A huge free parking space.
- The best quality products for the lowest price.
- Training and shaping young Egyptians to meet the methods of management to achieve the quality standards of a hypermarket in Egypt.

Recognized as one of the most active shopping concept developers throughout the region, the Group first introduced the hypermarket model to the Middle East in 1995. Majid Al Futtaim Retail manages Majid Al Futtaim Hypermarkets, a joint venture company with the world's second largest retailer Carrefour, and offers shoppers the same quality, variety and value-for-money that have made the brand a household name to millions over the world.

In the expansion of Carrefour across the region currently there are 37 hypermarkets in the Middle East. And Majid Al Futtaim Retail "Carrefour" expects to open 10 new stores in the coming period
