About :

As a high school student working at a local pizza pub in Jeffersonville, Indiana, Papa John's founder John Schnatter realized that there was something missing from national pizza chains: a superior-quality traditional pizza delivered to the customer's door. His dream was to one day open a pizza restaurant that would fill that void.

In 1984, "Papa" John Schnatter knocked out a broom closet located in the back of his father's tavern (Mick's Lounge), sold his prized 1972 Z28 Camaro, purchased $1,600 worth of used restaurant equipment, and began selling his pizzas to the tavern's customers.

The customers loved the pizza so much that John was able to expand by moving into adjoining space eventually leading to the opening of the Today, there are approximately 3,000 Papa John's restaurants operating in 49 states and 29 international markets.

More importantly, Papa John's remains committed to its heritage of making a superior-quality, traditional pizza.

The idea of Roma Pizza was born in Los Angeles, California on a warm summer night in 1985. The inspiration, however, came about a few years earlier when in 1979, Jeff Sarazzini, an Italian-American, visited his childhood hometown of Napoli, Italy after having lived his entire adulthood in California. Jeff was immediately drawn to the city's charm and atmosphere. However, above everything else, Jeff could hardly ignore the city's reputation for scrumptiously tasting pizza. In 1998, a group of Egyptian entrepreneurs, inspired by Jeff's success, created Roma Pizza, a brand built on Jeff's philosophy, a full-fledged store was launched. The brand's inauguration was highly successful. The concept of the pizza slice quickly rallied support from local pizza fans and new customers alike. It became a symbol of satiating hunger quickly, conveniently and of course deliciously!

Roma Pizza uses the freshest and highest quality ingredients. The brand has become synonymous with succulent pizza slices hence the motto 'Big Slice, Big Taste.'
